ASTROLOGY, ARCHETYPES, AND THE SOUL OF THE COSMOS

Anne Beversdorf,
Austin Astrologer

Anne will be talking about how understanding and reading symbols and archetypes can heal your world and offer you profound secrets of understanding what's going on around you. Since astrologers already have an extensive symbol set, it's easier for us, but the lecture applies to any symbol system, including your own private ones.

Anne Beversdorf is an astrologer, lecturer, teacher, author, and writer, her articles appearing in The Mountain Astrologer, the AFA Journal, many smaller publications, and in journals in Italy and Australia. Her book, Vedic Secrets to Happiness, received very positive reviews in the Mountain Astrologer. She uses both western astrology and Jyotisha, the astrology of India and specializes in crisis situations and existential issues. A practicing astrologer since 1993 with clients from all over the US and abroad, she still considers herself an active student of astrology. A former librarian and educational software distributor, she taught computer education at Indiana University and California State University, San Diego, and more recently consulted in marketing and product selection for World Almanac Educational Books. She is a member of the board of directors of the Astrological Society of Austin, and on the Council for the Institute of Noetic Sciences, Austin.

President's Message

Donna Henson, President

We have several things to celebrate this month. Besides the birth-date of our nation, July 4, we also have an important event on July 16, the entry of Jupiter into Leo. This is especially good for all you fire signs since it encourages good judgment and optimism for you. It will also make an exact Jupiter return for ASNT in October in time for our annual workshop. At this Jupiter return, which we have every 12 years, we can attract abundance, luck, and patronage with the generous and tolerant attitude that comes with it. At the same time, though, we still have to contend with Saturn in our sun sign, Scorpio, until December 24 when it transits into Sagittarius. In Scorpio it calls for careful planning and maturity on our part.

Mars has been in our solar 12th house since December 8, 2013, which I call a "psychological position," when we are sorting out what we do and do not want for our group. Much progress has been made as we continue to enjoy the informative programs and friendships that are brought to us each month, but when Mars finally transits into Scorpio, our sun sign, July 26, we can expect a boost in energy toward our goals. This is the time to contact your friends about what a great group we have.
