

Gary P. Caton is an eclectic Astrologer in practice for over twenty years. He embraces an organic, process-oriented approach of spiritual exploration via the Living Sky. He has studied Spirituality for over 24 years and after exploring Shamanism & the Tarot in 1993 his life was changed by a magnificent dream where he was shown planetary alignments. He became an Astrologer. Gary also earned a degree in Counseling with honors and out of this background, has developed a unique multi-discipline path to practicing Astrology.

An experienced writer with published articles and books, Gary has been making the rounds on the astrological lecture circuit for more than ten years. He specializes in understanding the visual or synodic cycles of the inner planets, and delivering knowledge in a clear and practical fashion. In his consulting practice, Gary uses his counseling skills to help people get in touch with the truth of their heart, and communicate that effectively. On his popular free Goddess Astrology Podcast, he teaches how to follow the cycles of Mercury and Venus as a tool to remain in touch with that process.

WORK SHOP SCHEDULE AND TOPICS

Saturday — 10:00 am - 12:30pm — Venus

Identifying Venusian Potential

Learn how to analyze Venus for her potential in a chart using both a classical and modern analysis to discern the level of the Soul's desire to fully actualize the archetype of Venus. We will see how Venus' dignities form two interlocking Yods and how all 6 signs can be indicators of Venusian potential. Finally we will learn how to draw dispositor trees and see how these can show us the desire of a planet to be in charge of the chart and the life.

Following the Venus Gates

Venus has three incarnations: Morning Star, UnderWorld, and Evening Star. There are seven lunar conjunctions as Morning Star which symbolize the seven gates the Goddess Inanna passes through on her Descent to the Underworld. Following her sixty days absence from the night sky, Venus returns in the West as an Evening star. This is followed by seven conjunctions to the waxing crescent Moon. This lecture will teach you how to follow these seven Gates as seven sacred appointments on a "Seven step program" of self-discovery and personal transformation.

Saturday — 2:00 pm - 5:30pm — Mercury

Mercury — Your Personal Mental Chemistry

Gain a deeper understanding of how Mercury functions in our charts. This workshop will take you past simply delineating sign and house by giving an outline of the entire Mercury cycle. Were you born while he was Morning Star, Evening Star or invisible in the Underworld? How does this combine with your Moon speed to create a particular information processing style? How can you make allowances for your own and your clients style?

Mercury's Role in the Current Collective Discourse

Learn a powerful technique, known as the Mercury Elemental Year. Mercury's three retrogrades each year occurs within one or two particular astrological elements. It is important to understand what is going on internally on an emotional, instinctual and spiritual level during Mercury retrograde rather than to try to manage outer world events which need to be logical and/or linear in nature. By going back to the basics of the Elements, we can understand what each particular Mercury Elemental Year requires of us from an experiential, instinctive, right-brained perspective.

Sunday — 1:30 — 3:00pm

Identifying Planetary Themes in Solar Returns

Planets have synodic cycles, which track their relationship to the Sun, as well as sidereal cycles, which track their motion through the Zodiac. When we combine the two we find that certain years of our lives will carry distinct flavors of particular planets whose returns coincide with the Solar return. Identifying these themes can give the astrologer tremendous insight into which planetary energies are most propitious for an individual in any given year of life.

3:30 — 5:00pm

Transformation via the Transit Nodes

This talk is about using Eclipse cycles for personal empowerment. We will learn how the Dragon's Head (North Node) brings in new energy for growth and the Dragon's tail (South Node) releases old energy which is no longer useful. Since the Nodes are points of intersection, sometimes the energy is more easily available to us via the planetary rulers. We will discuss some basic strategies and tools for making sense of eclipse season and harnessing the enormous growth potential of the transit Nodes.
